PLANNING DIRECTIVE NO. 30

SUBJECT: Publications Review Subcommittee

1. The Problem

a. (1) On 19 April 1946, the Secretary of the Joint Intelligence Committee submitted a memorandum for the Director of Central Intelligence, same subject as above, with one enclosure, JIC 86/9. The memorandum stated that it was the opinion of the Joint Intelligence Committee that the functions which it exercises through the Publications Review Subcommittee come under the cognizance of the National Intelligence Authority and should be assumed by the Authority at the earliest practical date. An expression of the opinion and intention of the Director of Central Intelligence with reference to this matter was requested.

(2) The carbon copy of the memorandum referred to, with its enclosure, is enclosed under the original hereof for file in the Intelligence Branch.

b. As a problem in the coordination of dissemination of intelligence reports, this is of primary interest to the Intelligence Branch.

c. Particular attention is called to subparagraph 4a of Appendix "A" of the enclosure with regard to the functions of the Publications Review Subcommittee.

2. Planning Requirement

a. A proposed memorandum from the Secretary, NIA, to the Secretary, Joint Intelligence Committee, answering his memorandum, will be prepared and submitted to the Chief, Central Planning Staff, and the Policy and Review Branch.

b. Draft of any additional action necessary by the C.I.G., if any, will be submitted to Chief, Central Planning Staff, and the Policy and Review Branch.

3. Coordination

The study under paragraph 2 b above, will be coordinated with the Central Reports Staff.

4. Deadline:

Memorandum required by paragraph 2 a, above, will be submitted by 7 May 1946.
